PROCLAMATIONS.

BESSBOROUGH.

[L.S.]

CANADA:

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come or whom the same may in anywise concern—
GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

W. STUART EDWARDS, { WHEREAS it hath Deputy Minister { pleased Almighty of Justice, Canada. { God in His great goodness to vouchsafe this year unto Our Dominion of Canada a bountiful crop and other blessings: And whereas, by and with the authority of Our Governor in Council, We did on the twentieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, cause to be published in Our Canada Gazette a Proclamation fixing Monday, the fourteenth day of October next, as a day of general thanksgiving:

And whereas circumstances have arisen which render it expedient that the said Proclamation be revoked:

AND WHEREAS, by an order of Our Governor in Council dated the fourteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P.C. 2496), authority has been granted for the revocation of the said Proclamation and for the issue of another Proclamation in its stead:

We therefore do hereby declare and proclaim that the aforesaid Proclamation has been cancelled and revoked, and, considering that the aforesaid blessings enjoyed by Our people throughout the said Dominion do call for a solemn and public acknowledgment, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council for Canada, to appoint, and We do appoint, Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of October next, as a day of general thanksgiving to Almighty God for the bountiful crop and other blessings with which Canada has been favoured this year; and we do invite all Our loving subjects throughout Canada to observe the said day as a day of general thanksgiving.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS: Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin and Counsellor, VERE BRA-BAZON, Earl of Bessborough, a Member of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, formerly Captain in Our Territorial Army, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of Our Dominion of Canada; at Our Government House, in Our City of Ottawa, this nineteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and in the twenty-sixth year of Our reign.

"HEALTH ACT."

September 27th, 1935.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 13, subsection (e), of the "Health Act," being chapter 102, R.S.B.C. 1924, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of the following regulations in the place of regulations made by Orders in Council 1 and 1142 approved on January 6th, 1898, and September 21st, 1922, respectively:—

UNIFORM REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE TRANSPORTATION OF DEAD BODIES IN CANADA, AND ADOPTED BY THE PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

1. The body of any one who has died of Bubonic Plague, Cholera, Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Typhoid, Typhus, or Smallpox shall not be transported by railway, boat, or other conveyance within a Province or beyond it, unless all orifices of the body have been first blocked with absorbent cotton and the body enclosed in metal or metal-lined coffin or casket that is permanently sealed to prevent its being reopened and to prevent leakage. These provisions shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Medical Officer of Health of the district concerned or other constituted authority, whose certificate to this effect shall appear on the outside of the coffin and be duly noted by the transportation company before the body is accepted for removal.

2. Such dead body shall not be accompanied by any person or article which has been exposed to infection from the disease unless certified by the Medical Health Officer to have been properly disinfected.

3. (a.) The body of any one having died of a disease other than one of those mentioned in section 1 may be received for transportation within a Province or beyond it, when enclosed in a sound coffin or casket and enclosed in a strong outside wooden box, provided it will reach its destination within seventy-two hours from the time of death. Where transportation cannot be completed within that period, the body shall not be accepted for transportation unless it has been embalmed by a licensed embalmer, or is enclosed in a sealed metal or metal-lined coffin or casket, and enclosed in a strong outside wooden box.

(b.) Shipping pasters furnished by the railway or other transportation company shall be properly completed and executed.

4. (a.) The Medical Officer of Health or other constituted authority shall not issue a transit or removal permit, unless or until the applicant for such permit submits to him a copy of the burial or removal permit as issued by the local Registrar of Vital Statistics and has furnished him with a certificate similar to Form A attached, and also, where the circumstances so require, similar to Form B attached.

(b.) In case the first-mentioned section states that the body has been embalmed, and the embalming is not done by the applicant for the transit or removal permit, he shall obtain from the embalmer a certificate similar to Form B attached, and file it with the Medical Officer of Health, together with the said certificate on Form A.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 29.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Occupation of Janitress.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Female Minimum Wage Act," being chapter 48 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1934, and the "Female Minimum Wage Act Amendment Act, 1935," the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "janitress" means and includes every employee employed as janitress, janitress-cleaner, or janitress-fireman.

2. That the minimum wage for every janitress shall be thirty-five cents (35c.) per hour, except for janitresses referred to in sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 of this Order.

3. That the minimum wage for every janitress of any apartment building containing over fifty (50) residential suites, where the janitress resides on the premises, shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125) per month.

4. That the minimum wage for every janitress of any apartment building containing not more than fifty (50) and not less than twenty-five (25) residential suites, where the janitress resides on the premises, shall be one hundred dollars ($100) per month.

5. That the minimum wage for every janitress of any apartment building containing not more than twenty-four (24) and not less than thirteen (13) residential suites, where the jani-tress resides on the premises, shall be seventy-five dollars ($75) per month.

6. That the minimum wage for every janitress of any apartment building containing less than thirteen (13) residential suites shall be thirty-five cents (35c.) per hour for each hour of work.

7. When a janitress works in two or more apartment buildings the minimum wage shall be based upon the rates fixed in sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 of this Order, according to the combined number of residential suites in the two or more apartment buildings in which the janitress works.

8. When a janitress resides in any apartment building to which this Order applies, there may be deducted from her wages a sum equivalent to a fair rental value for such provided accommodation in proportion to the rental value of the other suites in the said apartment building:

Provided, however, that not more than twenty dollars ($20) a month may be deducted from her wages for a suite of two (2) rooms and bath-room, and not more than five dollars ($5) per month may be deducted from her wages for each room in excess of two (2) in the said suite.

In cases where the janitress is furnished with electricity and (or) gas, and the janitress uses the same, not more than the sum of four dollars ($4) per month may be deducted from her wages for the said electricity and (or) gas, or, in the alternative, meters shall be installed and the janitress shall thereupon pay for the consumption of the said electricity and (or) gas according to the said meters.

9. This Order shall become effective on the 3rd day of October, 1935.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 26th day of September, 1935.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 30.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Public Housekeeping Occupation.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Female Minimum Wage Act," being chapter 48 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1934, and the "Female Minimum Wage Act Amendment Act, 1935," the Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "public housekeeping occupation" includes the work of waitresses, attendants, housekeepers, cooks, and kitchen-help in restaurants, hotels, tea-rooms, ice-cream parlours, light-lunch stands, and other places where food is cooked, prepared, and served for which a charge is made; and the work of chambermaids in hotels, lodging-houses, and apartments where lodging is furnished, whether or not such establishments are operated independently or in connection with any other business; and the work of all female elevator operators.

2. (a.) That, subject to the other provisions of this Order, the minimum wage for every employee eighteen (18) years of age or over that age in the public housekeeping occupation, not included in any other Order of the Board (except women to whom special licences are issued under section 6 (1) of the said "Female Minimum Wage Act"), whose week consists of forty (40) hours or more shall be the sum of fourteen dollars ($14).

(b.) That, subject to the other provisions of this Order, the minimum wage for every employee eighteen (18) years of age or over that age in the public housekeeping occupation, not included in any other Order of the Board (except women to whom special licences are issued under section 6 (1) of the said "Female Minimum Wage Act"), whose week consists of less than forty (40) hours shall be the sum of thirty-seven and one-half cents (37½c.) per hour: Provided, however, that the minimum wage for any such employee in any one day shall be not less than the sum of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50):

Provided further that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of said employee, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's lodging of seven (7) days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

3. (a.) That the minimum wage for every employee under the age of eighteen (18) years in the public housekeeping occupation, not included in any other Order of the Board, whose week consists of forty (40) hours or more shall be twelve dollars ($12).

(b.) That the minimum wage for every employee under the age of eighteen (18) years in the public housekeeping occupation, not included in any other Order of the Board, whose week consists of less than forty (40) hours shall be the sum of thirty cents (30c.) per hour: Provided, however, that the minimum wage for any such employee under the age of eighteen (18) years in any one day shall be not less than the sum of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20):

Provided further that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any employee under the age of eighteen (18) years as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's lodging of seven (7) days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any employee under the age of eighteen (18) years as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

4. (a.) That the minimum wage for every inexperienced employee eighteen (18) years of age or over that age in the public housekeeping occupation, not included in any other Order of the Board, whose week consists of forty (40) hours or more shall be twelve dollars ($12) a week during the first three (3) months' employment in such occupation.

(b.) That the minimum wage for every inexperienced employee eighteen (18) years of age or over that age in the public housekeeping occupation, not included in any other Order of the Board, whose week consists of less than forty (40) hours shall be the sum of thirty cents (30c.) per hour during the first three (3) months' employment in such occupation: Provided, however, that the minimum wage for any such employee in any one day shall be not less than the sum of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20):

Provided further that when lodging is furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than three dollars ($3) a week may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's lodging of seven (7) days:

And, further, that when board or meals are furnished by the employer to any employee as part payment of the wages of such employee, not more than five dollars and twenty-five cents ($5.25) may be deducted from the weekly wage of such employee for a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals. A fraction of a week's board shall be computed upon a proportional basis.

5. Licences must be obtained from the Board before such inexperienced employees eighteen (18) years of age or over that age may be employed at the rate set forth in section 4 of this Order. Application forms for such licences may be obtained from the Board, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C.

6. No employee in the public housekeeping occupation shall be employed for a greater number of hours than forty-eight (48) in any one week, except in cases of emergency, when fifty-two (52) hours a week may be worked.

7. Every employee in the public housekeeping occupation employed for a greater number of hours than forty-eight (48) in any one week shall be paid at the rate of not less than time and one-half for such excess time according to the legal rate to which she is entitled by sections 2, 3, or 4 of this Order.

8. This Order shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette on the 3rd day of October, 1935, and shall become effective on the said 3rd day of October, 1935, and shall be in substitution for Order No. 5 of the Board governing the public housekeeping occupation, dated the 2nd day of May, 1934, which is hereby rescinded.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 26th day of September, 1935.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(m.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, incorporation, and establishment and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring any profit or benefit for the Company, or placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise dealing with or disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities, property, or assets or any portion thereof, or assisting so to do, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered in and about the formation of the Company or in and about the conduct of its business, either in money or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(n.) To create, draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, bonds, obligations, warrants, debentures, debenture stock, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, documents, and securities:

(o.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(p.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; provided that nothing in all the foregoing shall authorize the Company to exercise the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(s.) To do all such other acts, deeds, and things as the Company may deem to be necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the or any of the Company's objects:

(t.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

NOTICE is hereby given that "W. J. Ellis Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 20th day of September, 1935.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 210 Lorne Street, Kamloops, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at Kamloops, British Columbia, and known as W. J. Ellis & Company, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith, with a view to entering into the agreement referred to in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification, and to carry on the trades or businesses of ironmasters, steel-makers, steel-converters, mechanical engineers, tin-plate makers, and iron-founders in all their respective branches:

(b.) To carry on business as wholesalers and retailers of every commodity, article, and thing capable of being dealt in:

(c.) To carry on business as importers, exporters, and manufacturers, and generally to deal in all classes of goods, wares, and merchandise:

(d.) To act as principals or agents for the sale or distribution, either wholesale or retail, of any product or commodity capable of being sold:

(e.) To aid any association, individual, or company with capital, credit, means, or resources for the prosecution of any works, undertakings, projects, or enterprises, and to take and hold lien notes, hire receipts, bills of sale, or chattel mortgages, or other securities, as security for money loaned by the Company:

(f.) To lend the Company's money on real or personal security, and generally to carry on business as financiers and investors, and to undertake and carry out all business transactions and operations (except such matters as are prohibited by the "Companies Act") as an individual capitalist might lawfully undertake and carry out; and to lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of any persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments; and to purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore and territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof; provided that nothing herein shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(g.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertakings of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any company purchasing the same:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the payment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities, and also by similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(i.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(j.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, or securities of other companies belonging to this Company or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(k.) To acquire and hold, either by purchase or otherwise, all kinds of real and personal property, and to lease, sell, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the same, and provide and loan money for the erection of buildings on the lands belonging to the Company or sold by the said Company:

(l.) To take by purchase, assignment, or transfer from any person, firm, or corporation any contract or agreement for sale of lands or other property, with all the rights and privileges attaching to such contract or agreement, and with power to perform and carry out any such contract or agreement and to enforce the same:

(m.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(n.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(o.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person or company, not inconsistent with any of the objects or powers of this Company, and to issue, in payment for the same, shares of this Company fully paid up or partly paid up, or to pay for the same in cash or otherwise:

(p.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects wholly or in part similar to its objects, and to sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, upon receiving the assent of two-thirds in interest of its members:

(q.) To remunerate any director of the Company or person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the conduct of the Company, and such remuneration may be in cash or by allotment of fully paid shares of the Company or in such manner as the Company may determine:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.
